DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-27 are presented for examination on the merits.

Priority

Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Preliminary Amendment

The Preliminary Amendment filed April 22, 2005, has been received and entered.

Information Disclosure Statement

The information disclosure statements (IDSs) submitted on September 20, 2007 and October 17, 2005, were received. The submissions are in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statements are being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-13, 18-24, and 26-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

The claims are rendered vague and indefinite for the recitation of the term "entity" because it is unclear what is intended to be encompassed by this term in these claims. The metes and bounds of these claims can not be determined.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the “right to exclude” granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-27 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-24 of copending Application No. 11/977844. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the difference is only in terms of the scope of the claimed subject matter

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented

Instantly claimed subject matter is drawn to method, composition and kit for prion decontamination comprising detergent and proteases.

Copending claims are drawn to composition for prion decontamination, method of prion decontamination and kit therefore wherein the composition comprises detergent and proteases.

The difference as noted above is with respect to the scope of the claimed subject matter.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the claimed invention was made to provide for the method, composition and kit all comprising proteases and detergent to decontaminate prions because the copending claims clearly teach that proteases and detergent combinations are well known. Thus, one of skill would have been motivated to provide for the claimed subject matter based upon the copending claimed subject matter. The protease/detergent combination is clearly recognized by the copending claims and the instant claims are hence rendered prima facie obvious over the copending claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-27 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by WO 01/54736, (WO), cited on enclosed PTO-1449 Form.

The claims are drawn to a process, composition and kit therefore, comprising SDS and protease for decontaminating prion on surfaces.

Art Unit: 1651

WO teaches a process and composition for decontaminating prion on a surface, see page 39, lines 20-35, wherein proteinase K and SDS are disclosed to be used in combination for treating a surface for prion contamination. The surface can be metal and includes instruments, etc. A kit comprising protease and SDS are inherent to the teachings of the composition because essentially the kit is the composition.

The claims are identical to the cited disclosure and are, therefore, considered to be anticipated by the teachings of the reference.

All claims fail to be patentably distinguishable over the state of the art discussed above and cited on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449. Therefore, the claims are properly rejected.

The remaining references listed on the enclosed PTO-892 and/or PTO-1449 are cited to further show the state of the art.

No claims are allowed.
